

BAL HARBOUR

- V I L L A G E -

UNSCRIPTED BAL HARBOUR ART TOUR AND TALK CARRIE SCHNEIDER'S "READING WOMEN"

SUNDAY, NOVEMBER 19, 2017
THE RITZ-CARLTON BAL HARBOUR
10295 COLLINS AVENUE

4PM Cocktail and Tour

5:30PM Talk and book signing

"Reading Women" celebrates creative women in a series of photographic portraits of women writers, musicians and artists, and details of the books they are reading by select women authors. Join artist Carrie Schneider and curator Kendra Paitz as they talk about the advocacy of this two-year long project, its accompanying film, as well as Schneider's performative and collaborative practice.

"Reading Women" is on view on Bal Harbour's beach walk at 99th street and 102nd street until February 28, 2018, and is presented in collaboration with University Galleries of Illinois State University and The Miami Book Fair.

RSVP BY NOVEMBER 10 TO
UNSCRIPTED@BALHARBOURFLORIDA.COM
@UNSCRIPTEDBALHARBOUR
BALHARBOURFLORIDA.COM/UNSCRIPTED

Carrie Schneider's "Reading Women" film will be screened at the Pérez Art Museum Miami (PAMM), 1103 Biscayne Blvd, on Saturday, November 18 from 10am-6pm.

Felecia reading Malala Yousafzai (I Am Malala: The Girl Who Stood Up for Education and Was Shot by the Taliban, 2013).

Carrie Schneider at Monique Meloche Gallery. Photo by Paul Germanos.

Kendra Paitz, Senior Curator at University Galleries of Illinois State University. Photo credit: Jason Judd.