Weekly Summary Report

Weekly Code Enforcement Efforts

Comments:

The code enforcement unit continues to monitor the Village during its recovery from Hurricane Irma. The unit is working with contractors to ensure all construction sites are returned to their pre-storm conditions. Additionally, we continue to evaluate the progress of properties in their efforts to remove storm debris.

Criminal Investigations Division Weekly Summary Report

Comments:

The Bal Harbour police criminal investigations unit continues to gather information regarding the recent residential burglaries. In conjunction with our neighboring agencies, our detective is analyzing latent fingerprints obtained from the crime scenes and has submitted them for comparison.

As part of an ongoing fraud investigation, our detective continues the process of reviewing court subpoenas and instructions. Detective Gonzalez also conducted a course on Autism Awareness at the Miami Dade College Institute of Criminal Justice.

Noteworthy Incidents / Arrests

Date	Incident Type	Location
09/16/2017	Found Property	10100 Block Beach Side

Comments:

In the course of conducting Hurricane Irma safety and damage assessment of the beach area, a Bal Harbour police officer located a washed up life jacket belonging to the U.S. Geological Survey Team. The property was impounded and an email was sent to the department notifying them of the found property.

Date	Incident Type	Location
09/16/2017	Hazardous Conditions	Haulover Inlet by Bal Harbour Jetty

Comments:

Hurricane Irma displaced one of the beachside exclusionary zone buoy markers causing it to re-anchor itself in the middle of Haulover Cut. The US Coast Guard was advised of the hazard and they issued a marine advisory. Bal Harbour and Aventura marine patrol officers were able to recover and replace the buoy back to the original position removing the hazard.

Weekly Summary Report

Date	Incident Type	Location
09/20/2017	Minor Electrical Fire	10240 Collins Avenue, Bal Bridge North
COMMENTS:
Bal Harbour police officers and the Miami Dade County Fire Department were dispatched to a fire after residents observed smoke emitting from the elevator shaft. Police officers arrived and began to evacuate residents until the fire department could assess the damage. The fire department personnel determined the smoke had been caused by an electrical issue and deemed the building safe. Residents were then allowed back into their apartments. There was no damage nor loss of power failure associated with this incident.

Date	Incident Type	Location
09/20/2017	Possible Fire	9700 Collins Avenue, Neiman Marcus
Comments:
A Bal Harbour police officer and the Miami Dade Fire Department were dispatched to a possible fire inside the store. As the officer arrived, employees were already in the process of evacuating the store. The fire department personnel conducted their assessment, and determined that no fire occurred. The store's boiler started to leak causing steam to escape giving the appearance of smoke to the employees. The store immediately returned to normal operations.

Date	Incident Type	Location
09/20/2017	Traffic Incident	2 Harbour Way, Kent Security Guard House
Comments:
While on routine patrol, the Bal Harbour public service aid observed vehicular traffic entering the gated community causing a back-up onto Collins Avenue. Our personnel provided assistance and managed the traffic flow until the driveway was cleared.

Date	Incident Type	Location
09/20/2017	Abandoned Property	10100 Block and the Beach Hard Pack
Comments:
While on routine patrol, a Bal Harbour officer observed a damaged bicycle abandoned on the beach path. The bicycle was impounded and placed in the Bal Harbour police property bureau.

Weekly Summary Report

Date	Incident Type	Location
09/20/2017	Swim Zone Violation	10100 Block and Atlantic Ocean
Comments:
The Bal Harbour police department received an anonymous call reference a small vessel inside the swim exclusionary zone by the beach. Bal Harbour police officers located the vessel which was just inside of the restricted zone. Officers made contact with the boat captain who was casting a net for bait fish. The captain immediately complied and went further out into the open water.
